

WHO AM I?

Director of Tourism Training and International Cooperation at Turismo de Portugal, I.P. the Portuguese national agency for tourism. Paulo Revés has extensive experience, working in the hospitality sector, and in education for hospitality during the last 30 years. He has lectured in tourism and hotel management related subjects including F&B management and tourism. He has coordinated various publications and has published several books on hospitality. He is also President of Eurhodip, the leading hospitality school association, and Vice-president of Coupe Georges Baptiste association.

WHAT IS MY ROLE IN EURHODIP

President of Eurhodip and responsible for the preparation and organization of the Annual Conference with the organizing school. Also responsible for the Competitions and Eurhodip Magazine. Paulo Revés coordinates the activities of the executive board, and is still responsible for Eurhodip Awards, and all institutional representations of Eurhodip.

ACHIEVEMENTS TO DATE

Paulo Revés has graduated in Tourism and Hospitality Management. He also has a Master's degree in Strategic Tourism Planning and a Doctorate in Tourism from the University of Lisbon.

Paulo Revés has attended several conferences as guest speaker about Tourism Education. He has publications in several journals and magazines and works closely with local education partners to develop the tourism and hospitality human resources.

RESEARCH AND CONSULTANCY INTERESTS

Research interests include food tourism, cultural tourism and tourism education. Paulo Revés can also offer consultancy in school facilities.